

Husna Iqbal

Knoxville, Tennessee 37932 • (347) 728-4203 • iqbalhusna24@gmail.com • www.linkedin.com/in/husnaiqbal

EDUCATION

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|
| The University of Tennessee - Knoxville , Haslam College of BusinessMaster of Business Administration                                                                                               | Knoxville, TennesseeDecember 2028 |
| The University of Tennessee - Knoxville , Haslam College of BusinessBachelor of Science in Business AdministrationMajor: Business Analytics Concentration: Information Management | Knoxville, TennesseeMay 2025      |

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                       |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------|
| Knoxville Utilities BoardMicrosoft 365 Power Platform Administrator <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· Governed the M365 ecosystem for over 1400 users including licensing, configuration, access, contract renewals, and policy enforcement while proactively assessing organizational needs</li><li>· Developed Power Apps, Power Automate cloud flows, and Power BI dashboards to streamline processes, enhance automation, and deliver real-time IT and utility health insights on monitor displays</li><li>· Supported SharePoint architecture planning and org-wide data migration for 35+ departments while enforcing least-privilege access controls across the environment</li><li>· Built Microsoft Copilot agents and identified opportunities to leverage AI in daily operations, developing and presenting comprehensive AI education materials to internal staff</li><li>· Translate complex technical concepts into clear, accessible presentations, visuals, and articles for non-technical stakeholders</li></ul> | Knoxville, TennesseeJuly 2025 – Present           |
| Knoxville Utilities BoardProperties Student <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· Bridged communication between contractors and internal teams throughout new system implementation, streamlining business processes and driving greater overall efficiency</li><li>· Automated previously manual business processes within the new system, and created documentation including reference guides and 10+ Visio workflows</li><li>· Established the asset management framework in a new system, configuring utility-specific assets and automated preventive maintenance schedules for over 60 substations</li><li>· Developed and implemented a comprehensive QA/QC framework from the ground up to standardize facilities project and operational work</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Knoxville, TennesseeNovember 2023 – July 2025     |
| Preston Medical LibraryStudent Library Assistant <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· Managed the reference desk by connecting patrons with various library and hospital resources</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Knoxville, TennesseeApril 2022 – March 2024       |
| Children's Hospital Urgent Care (TeamHealth)Medical Assistant <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· Performed 150+ diagnostic tests in high-volume pediatric care while charting into EMR systems</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Knoxville, TennesseeJune 2022 – July 2022         |
| Tennova HealthcareEmergency Department Technician <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>· Provided emergency patient care, including ECGs, phlebotomy, CPR, and suicide watch</li></ul>                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Knoxville, TennesseeDecember 2021 – February 2022 |

SKILLS

Language: Pashto (fluent), Urdu (intermediate)

Software: Visio, Power Apps, Power Automate, Power Bi, Excel, ShareGate, R, Tableau, SQL, Python, JMP, Java, Alteryx